UNESCO Information for All Programme (IFAP)

IFAP was established in 2001 as a flagship intergovernmental UNESCO programme for the purpose of assisting Member States in formulating and implementing balanced national policies of building inclusive knowledge societies. IFAP is based on inter-disciplinary, cross-sectoral and integrated approaches. IFAP priorities are information preservation, information accessibility, information literacy, information ethics, information for development and multilingualism in cyberspace.

UNESCO Institute for Information Technologies in Education

UNESCO Institute for Information Technologies in Education (UNESCO IITE) is located in Moscow, Russia. It was established as an integral part of UNESCO by the General Conference of UNESCO at its 29th session in 1997. UNESCO IITE is supported by the UNESCO Headquarters and its host country – the Russian Federation.

UNESCO IITE's activity is focused on achieving the Sustainable Development Goal in Education – ensuring inclusive and equitable quality education and lifelong learning for all – by promoting the development and implementation of national policies and the use of ICT in education programmes.

The mission of UNESCO IITE is to serve as a centre of excellence and provider of technical support and expertise in the area of ICT usage in education. The Institute is the only UNESCO entity specialized in the field of ICT in education and has accumulated a huge resource potential in this area.

Russian Committee of the UNESCO Information for All Programme

Russian IFAP Committee was established in 2000 under the Commission of the Russian Federation for UNESCO and the Ministry of Culture of the Russian Federation in compliance with the recommendations of the Intergovernmental Council for the Information for All Programme to link it with Russia. The Committee provides assistance in implementing the Programme's ideas, goals, concepts and priority lines of actions at both national and international levels. Russian IFAP Committee members represent government agencies, educational, research, cultural and communication establishments, non-governmental organizations and private sector. The Committee contributes to the work of UNESCO and IFAP constitutional organs, promotes UNESCO information and communication policy in Russia and other CIS countries, ensures information exchanges with national and international agencies in other countries, and provides access to Russian-language information about global trends in building knowledge societies and UNESCO activities.

Russian IFAP Committee participates in the advancement of national and international policies and legislation in the fields of culture, education, communication and information for the purpose of building inclusive knowledge societies. It contributes to the preparation of analytic reports and elaboration of practical guidelines, to the establishment of best practice centres and to the improvement of activities of various institutions within its competence.

Interregional Library Cooperation Centre

Moscow based NGO Interregional Library Cooperation Centre (ILCC), established in 1995, is the working body of the Russian Committee of the UNESCO Information for All Programme. In addition to contributing to the IFAP implementation, ILCC participates in (a) drafting and implementing in Russia governmental library policy and national programmes aimed to preserve library collections; (b) developing All-Russian public centres of legal and other socially meaningful information; (c) reading promotion; (d) advancing professional library training and (e) developing multilingualism in cyberspace. On a regular basis, ILCC drafts, publishes and disseminates information and methodological materials on the development of librarianship, culture and information policy.
